

Signpost Advisory Programme THE SIGNPOST PROGRAMME PROGRAMME

Why sign up?

See how your farm is performing and how best to reduce your emissions footprint plus assess what impact different options can have on your tarm

Many of the actions are win win for your farm – good for your profit, good for the environment

Engaging with climate actions will present opportunities for your farm

It's free of charge

The consumer is demanding sustainable food production

What is the programme?

Commit to Change

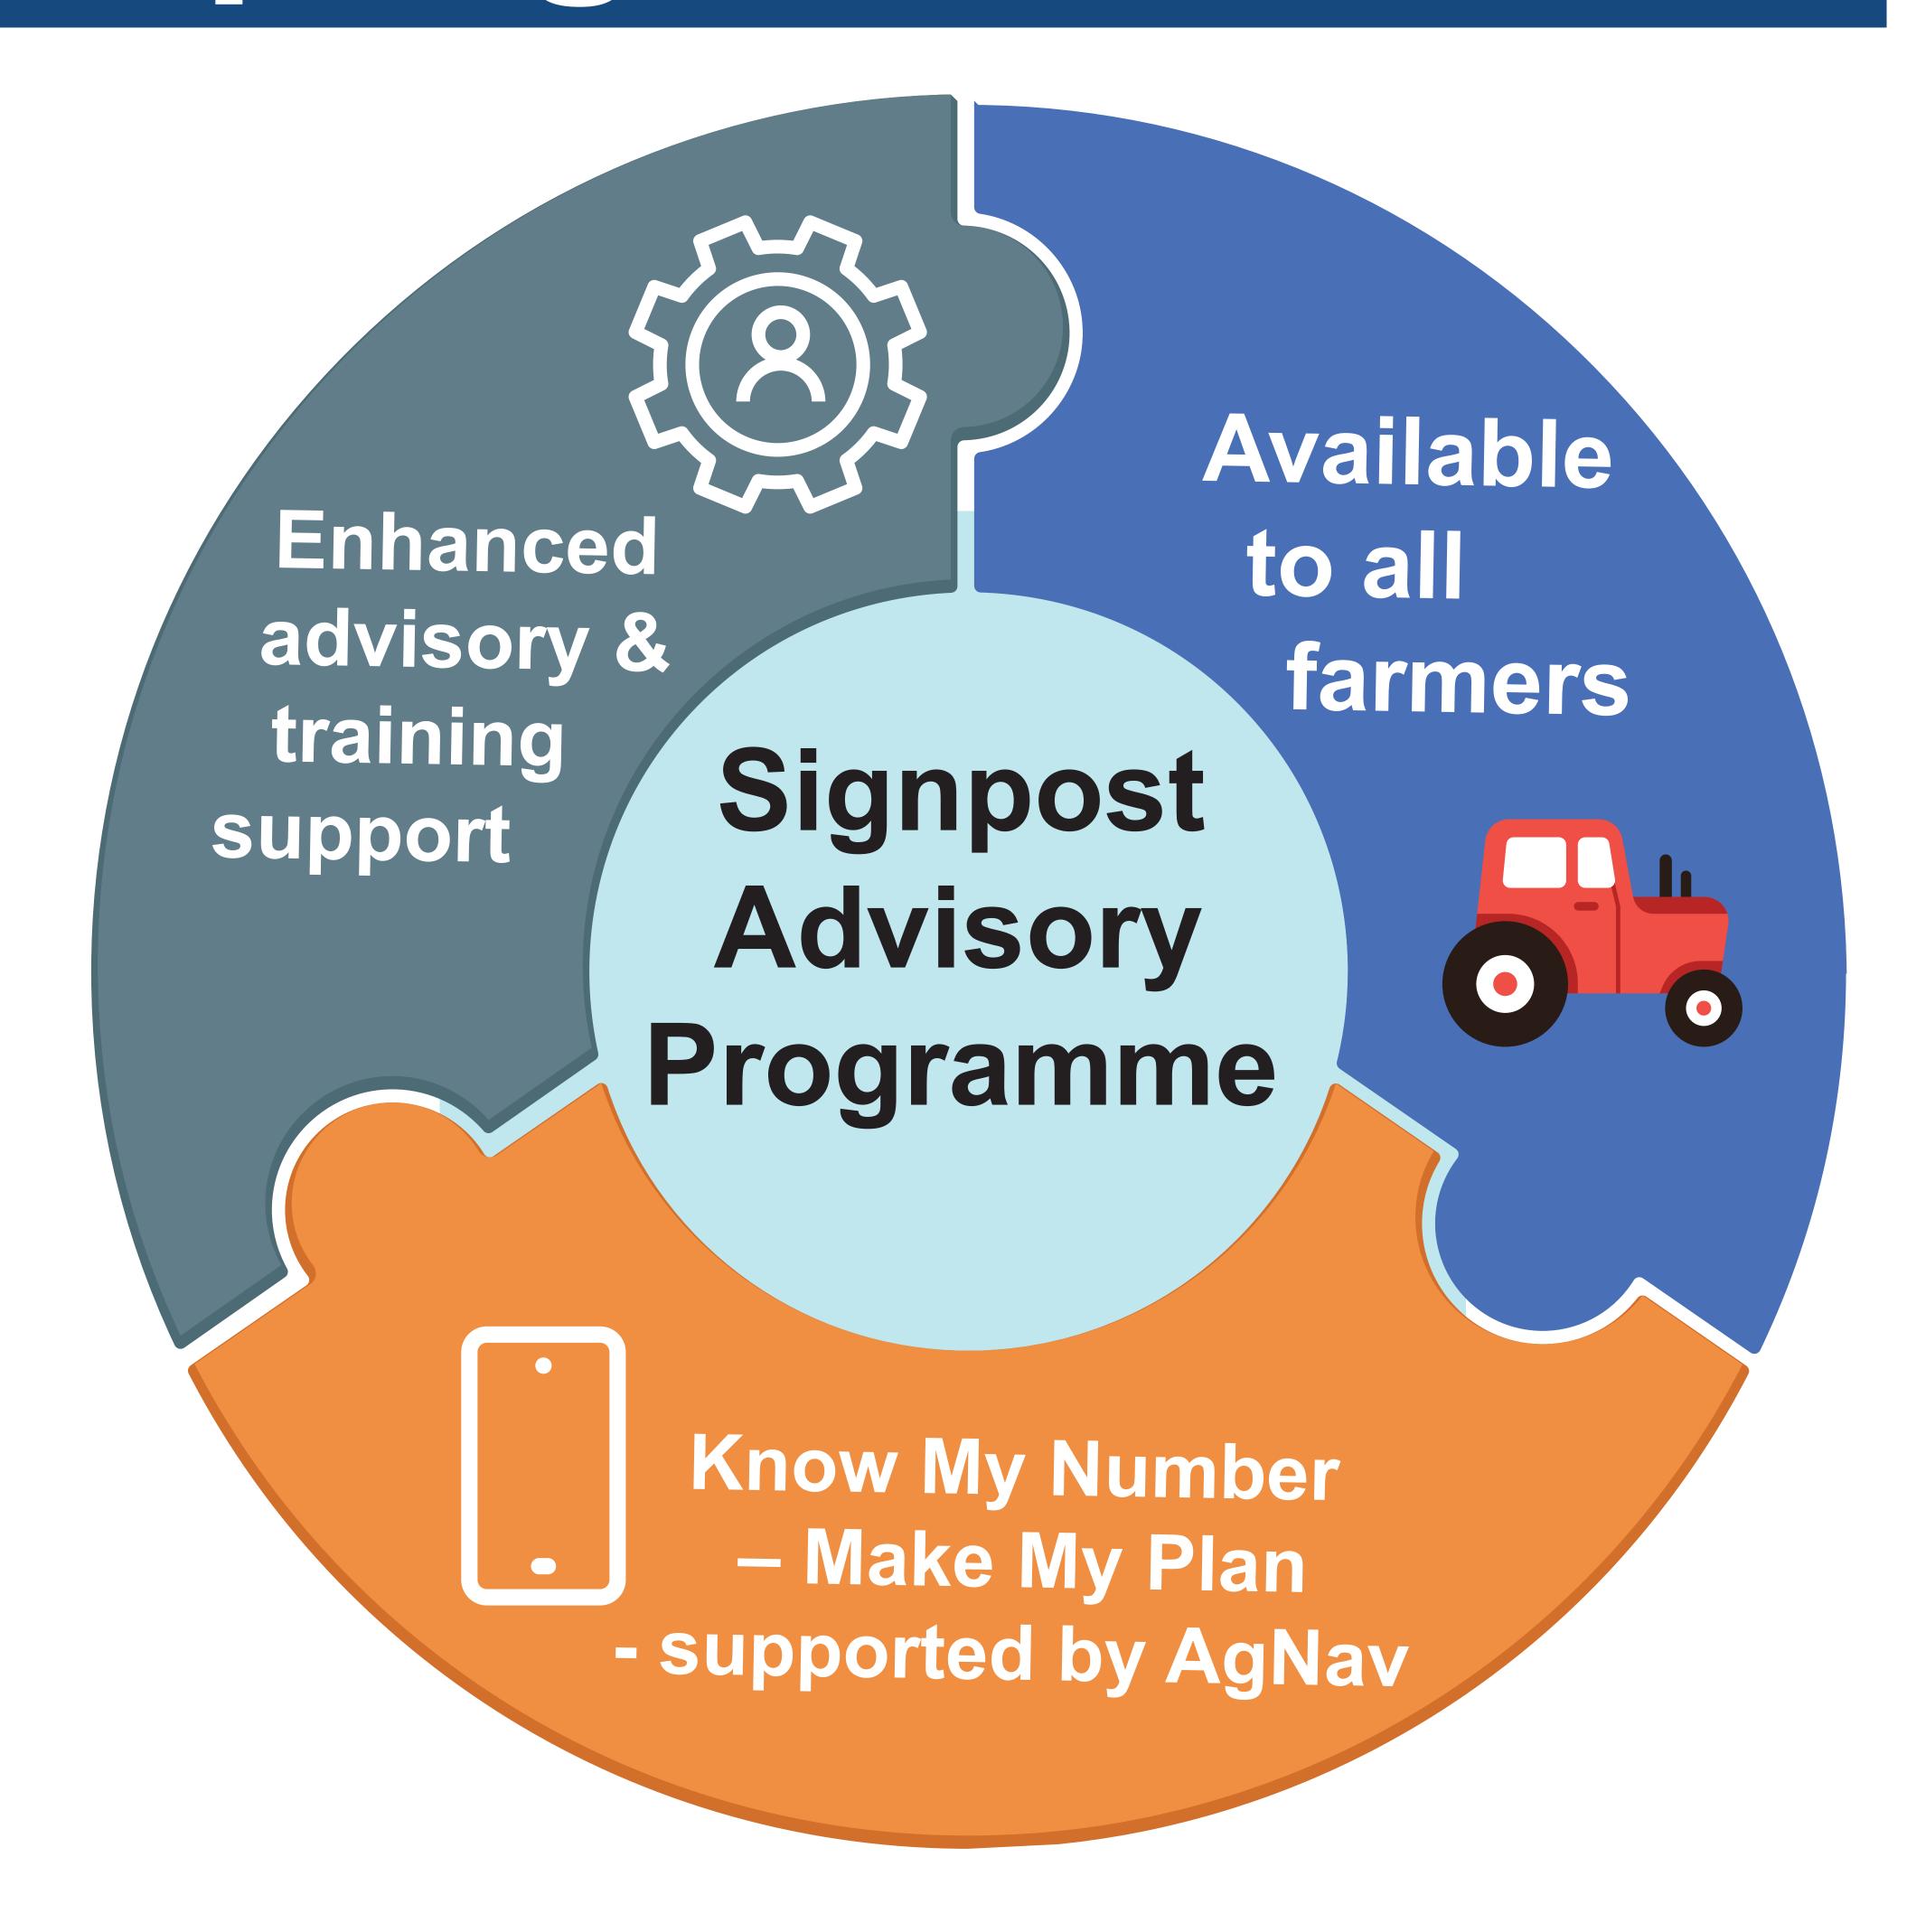

Register

for the

Programme

AGN AV

Baseline

Assessment

Engage with 50,000 farmers between now & 2030

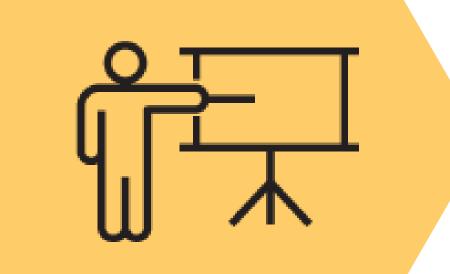

Support for Make My Know My Action Plan Number

What to expect from the programme

New dedicated Climate Action and Sustainability advisory team to support action planning and decision making

Workshops & training opportunities to learn more about climate change and reducing emissions

One-to-one advisory support to help implement positive change on-farm

Events and demonstarations to show new practices and technologies

Signpost demonstration farms to show how positive steps can work within real farm situations

Sign Up For The Signpost Advisory Programme