

Farmer Time - Airfield Estate

Our aim

- To inspire, engage and educate young people about agriculture, the farm to fork story & Irish food sustainability

Farmer Time Ireland

- Farmer Time Ireland has linked 2,500 urban and rural students with 90 farmers across Ireland since Sept '21
- With regular video calls from farms to classrooms, Farmer Time is creating relationships between farmers and future consumers
- We are shaping a greater understanding of farming and food production in primary and secondary schools nationwide
