

POULTRY BIOSECURITY CHECKLIST

Biosecurity is essential to protect your business from harmful diseases. The following checklist will aid in helping you keep your birds and livelihood protected.

Building Maintenance

- ☐ Is your roof structually sound?
- ☐ Is the house free from water ingress?
- ☐ Is the house well ventilated?
- ☐ Is the site clear of vegetation & debris?
- ☐ Is the site free of pooled water?

Bedding

- ☐ Is additional bedding in a covered store?
- ☐ Have bales been disinfected before being brought into the house?
- ☐ Have all vehicles or equipment been disinfected before entering the house?

Rodent Control

- ☐ Is there an effective rodent control in place?
- ☐ Are feed spillages cleaned up immediately?
- ☐ Have all holes/cracks been repaired?

Staff

- ☐ Is house specific clothing available for all staff?
- ☐ Avoid sharing staff between sites
- ☐ Is regular biosecurity training provided?
- ☐ Are step-over barriers in place and used correctly?

Visitors

- ☐ Are only essential visitors permitted site access?
- ☐ Is a visitor log being maintained accurately?
- ☐ Are all visitors shown the biosecurity plan?
- Is disposable PPE available for all visitors?

Vehicles

- ☐ Is designated off-site parking available for essential vehicles?
- ☐ For vehicles which must come on-site, is there appropriated cleaning and disinfecting facilities?
- ☐ Are drivers of vehicles made aware of the biosecurity measures before coming on-site?
- ☐ Is a log maintained of all vehicles coming on site?

Site Access

- ☐ Is the site gates and doors locked at all times?
- Is the foot-dip changed frequently?
- ☐ Is the correct disinfectant used, and at the correct dilution rate?
- ☐ Are foot-dips covered from rain?